Beloved children and grandchildren, death separates us now, but once we will live forever with Christ. My dear children ever remember the Son of God and let your hearts receive His words and keep His commandments. Do not forget me in your prayers.

Dear husband, take good care of our children and yourself, for I hope we will meet again in heaven.

The death of the just is precious, the end of their suffering, the completion of their victory, the gate to heaven, the entrance to perfect happiness.

I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, although he be dead, shall live. John XI, 25.

Our Father.

Hail Mary.
